

1) The half-flown moon is a rocking boat
To carry my little one out to sea,
To keep my precious one safe afloat
And bring her home in the morning to me.

Chorus: Rocka-bye bye low, lullaby. Rocka-bye bye low, lullaby. (Rpt)

2) The sliver moon is a silver sled
To carry my little one down the hill,
To carry my precious one safely still
And bring her home in the morning to me.

3) The full-blown moon is a big balloon
To carry my little one to the sky,
To teach my precious one how to fly
And bring her home in the morning to me.

4) The darkling moon is a secret door
To let my little one enter in,
To lead my precious one back again
And bring her home in the morning to me.
