

Oh, the morning's set for travel, and the road is breaking gray
(Ride the white wings of promise on your journey!)
As the map starts to unravel and the starlight fades away,
Find your strength in remembering your home.

CHORUS: Make remembering a shelter, and a flame to warm your heart,
Feeling weary - and alone.
What you leave will never leave you; of your soul we are a part.
Find your strength in remembering your home.

2) As I help you, I've been thinking how to send you on your way
(Ride the white wings of promise on your journey!)
When a hard day's sun is sinking, you can keep the blues at bay.
Find your strength in remembering your home.

3) If you mourn at every turning you will grieve your life away
(Ride the white wings of promise on your journey!)
Neither set your past a-burning, leaving ashes blowing gray;
Find your strength in remembering your home.

4) Let your memories dance with laughter as the future breaks away
(Ride the white wings of promise on your journey!)
Build the song of what comes after by the light of yesterday –
Find your strength in remembering your home!
