

- 1) Strike me a match, and that little flame Rises to call out the candle's name,
And the light is a star to the waiting dark, A leading example, - A singing spark! -
All power is one at start and end, - Stars and candles, - Breath and wind -
The light flares up to glow and blend. - So let it shine!

CHORUS: Make this light shine! Long may it shine!
Let my light, let your light, let our light shine!
Make this light shine! Long may we shine!
Let star light, let our light, let the universe shine!

- 2) A woman sings to the newborn dawn Words for the world to be dreaming on,
A radiant plea from a kindled flame, A striving example, - A humble claim!
All power is one at start and end, - Stars and candles, - Breath and wind.
And hope flares up to glow and blend - so let it shine!
- 3) A man takes the hand of a child in his, To tell what a marvelous world this is,
To lead to the light as he sees it given, A stumbling example, - A breath of heav'n!
All power is one at start and end, - Stars and candles, - Breath and wind.
And love flares up to glow and blend - so let it shine!
